The entire Intelligence Community agreed and issued a very rare statement on Covid 19 last year. Anyone denying this fact is spreading fake news and manipulating intelligence for political gain. Read it in full.

"...Covid 19, which originated in China."

REGULATORS

While recent market volatility shows rapidly fluctuating prices for GameStop not tied to "any fundamental changes in the company's finances or prospects," these speculative practices are not new.²⁰ In fact, "[f]or almost a year now, investors have been bidding up shares in companies like Tesla, Shopify and Snap to prices that bear little relation to the actual earnings prospects of the underlying companies"²¹ and the "frenzy also stirs memories of the 1990s dot-com boom, when a surge in day trading contributed to the inflation of an epic market bubble."²² It is long beyond time for the SEC to act.

In order to better understand how the Commission plans to address the dramatic price fluctuations of certain shares in recent days and to ensure the integrity of our capital markets, I ask that you respond to the following questions by Friday, February 5, 2021:

1. What were the causes of the recent dramatic shifts in GameStop share prices? Did these shifts represent a "fair, orderly, and efficient" market function?
 - a. Did the sharp rise in GameStop's share reflect changes in the company's fundamental value? If not, what drove these changes of GameStop share prices?
 - i. To what extent did large investors, such as hedge funds like Melvin Capital Management, and their short-seller practices, such as the shorting of GameStop, drive prices? Did any of these practices violate existing securities laws?
 - ii. To what extent did online message boards, such those on Reddit, or broader social media amplification impact the fluctuation of GameStop's prices? Did any of these practices violate existing securities laws?

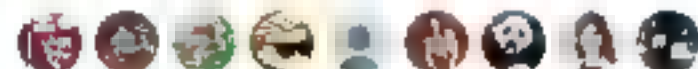

2. Do the wild swings in value of GameStop and other companies affected by similar trading practices represent a "fair, orderly, and efficient" market function?

So you can't get Covid in 2-3 minutes before air is recycled on a plane? There are no surfaces to touch on airplanes? Airlines aren't booking middle seats? Restaurants can't social distance and wipe surfaces? Gyms don't require masks?

Dr. Jason Johnson ✓ @DrJasonJohnson

Math doesn't add up. Airplanes not booked to capacity require all passengers wear masks. Also air in planes is recycled (at 30K feet) every 2-3 minutes. Enclosed gyms & restaurants without masks requirements with high contact surfaces are a completely different animal. twitter.com/RichardGrenell.

China exerts undue influence over the WHO. They do not own it. They certainly do not and could not dictate US policy (as Ronna claims).

US withdrawal allows from WHO leaves China as most powerful country there, allows China influence to grow

Rejoining under Biden means we will pay massive amounts to others who haven't taken the political will to lower CO2 like we have. It's a money sharing scheme where China gets to play the role of G77 member while wielding a Permanent Member veto.

'Fake news, fake news' your childish foot stomping is so tiresome, Richard. We are very, very confident about our reporting. You turned down our earlier request to you for comment, but the invitation is still open for you to sit down with us. You just don't dare lol, Your "sources" aren't real or are lying. It's flat wrong. You've had it up for 5 months and no one even noticed it. And it's not the first time you've completely made up stories. Your blog has no credibility

You must correct your phony sourced story that's been up for 5 months. It's a lie. Do you even care? And what does being gay have to do with it? Your blog is gossip. He didn't get a visa from me. He didn't even get one in Germany. I wasn't even Ambassador when he got one

Jeff Stein @SpyTalker · 31 Min

Our sources are so solid, Richard. Our reporters have decades of national security experience. Come sit down with us and explain your side of the story instead of ranting here. I'm sure it's fascinating how you got that criminal into the US after he'd been denied a visa three times

You aren't a legitimate reporter, you push lies. I answered you here. Your "sources" aren't real. He didn't get a visa in Germany. Wasn't from me. Your fellow bloggers are reckless. And this isn't the first time you've impeded your credibility

You said on MSNBC that @aoc had a "near death experience" - and yet you had no facts. And it wasn't true.

Press hands should do the opposite of what you tell them to do.

Sam Stein ✓ @samstein

Dear press hands: I understand it's tempting to try and get ahead of a seemingly bad story by feeding it to another outlet that will handle it kindly. It may even seem strategic. But the short term gain you feel will be undone by the longer term damage from the act. Don't do it.

I'd put it this way, @RichardGrenell:

The issue is not hypocrisy. Frankly, that's yesterday's problem.

Today's problem is a cultural movement that celebrates hypocrisy if it advances the movement.

"My truth." "My lived experience."

They've invented "ethical hypocrisy."

Much of the outrage people are feeling about the NYT (inside and outside the paper) has to do with chasm between what it says it is (the paper of record) and what it actually is (print MSNBC). I suspect the noise will die down as this becomes undeniable.

Not necessarily so — "You may see a conspiracy theory and you want it to be true and you believe it to be true and you forward it to try to make it be true. But that doesn't make it true," Moskowitz told POLITICO's Marc Caputo. "We've seen this, quite frankly, within the last four years with the previous

Caution — "But Democrats should not be so naive to think that they don't accidentally participate in things like that — for instance when they forward things around that falsely claim Florida has more deaths than New York when it comes to coronavirus. That is just not supported by the data."

And about New York — "And in fact, for all the stuff about how Florida was not being transparent, it's not Florida that's in the national news. It's New York, that's in the national news, and it was New York that had a cover up for the last six months, and had 50% of the nursing home deaths. We wouldn't ever have gotten away with that for 15 days in

More out of context nonsense from @slpng_giants.

Tucker's guest said that by Biden's logic the US is doing a disservice to black immigrants by bringing them here.

Neither Tucker nor the guest endorsed Biden's asinine logic & these dishonest race hustlers know that.

"If Biden believes that Black children are at risk of getting shot every time they step outside, we should not be bringing more Black people into this country."

Why didn't McQuaid speak out and make clear that Hunter Biden's laptop was NOT Russian disinformation? His politics overruled his support for the truth.

He was talking to the Biden team about a job and at the same time allowed a false claim to linger.

Interesting. There are only six people featured in that video and you cut out the two black ones for this feature image. You also don't even mention @robsmithonline or @ChristianWalk1r in your write-up. Are you trying to erase black voices or do they go against your narrative?

You've never seen signature verification like they are about to do in California.

@Steve_Glazer is considered a moderate and he's saying everyone is focused on reducing the number of signatures.

@GavinNewsom has a strategy to ensure there's no recall vote.

The 2015 Iran deal cut by @JoeBiden Team allowed limited access to nuclear sites by UN's IAEA. It was highly criticized because of this weak access.

Today's deal gives less access than the 2015 deal.

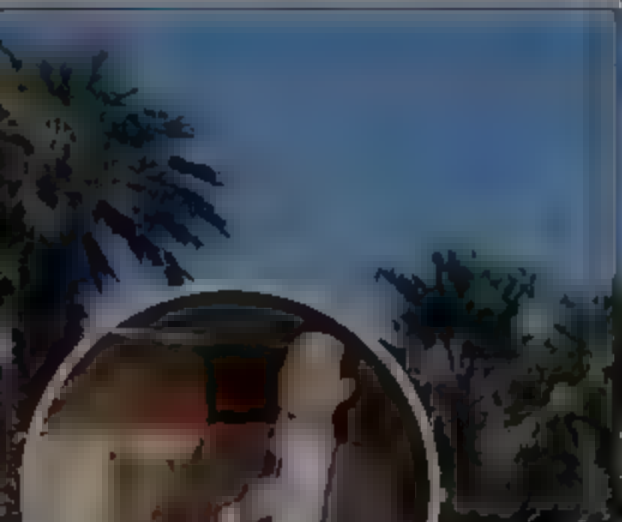

This is Wendy Sherman level of weakness.

Well, considering Newsome has decimated the restaurant industry in California it is doubtful this restaurant was able to open the kitchen to feed him. Under his own rules they could not. It's a wonder they let him inside.

Hillary Clinton declared during an interview that she could beat President Trump "again" if she decided to mount another run for the White House.

The comment came during an appearance Tuesday evening on "PBS NewsHour" with her daughter, Chelsea, to talk about the president, impeachment and their new book, "Gutsy Women."

He didn't say anything "anti-trans." He said that biological males shouldn't be allowed to compete in women's sports. There wasn't one word attacking trans people. Good try though.

Dave Weigel @daveweigel

The anti-trans stuff is the first bit here that seems new while PACs hit that during the campaign, Trump didn't talk about it. He did unwind trans rights with exec orders but didn't emphasize it at rallies.

Chris, anyone paying attention to Cuomo and not seduced by a bunch of press conferences over the course of a couple weeks would have known better.

Chris Cillizza @ChrisCillizza

Wait, so I was supposed to know a month or a year ago about these allegations against Cuomo that have just come out?

I know this website likes dunking but wow.... twitter.com/yashar/status/...

Congressman Randy Weber (Tx 14) Good luck getting him to take a position on anything. Call him out on it. Ask him directly if he feels that transgenderism is consistent with conservatism. Blast it out. Tell everyone.

So, you are going to ask him to tell you that he supports transgenderism privately, but then pretend that your support for him is all about taxes and "persona freedom."

Campaign for him. Make him the transgender GOP guy. If you feel you are right, don't hide behind "taxes."

You went from transgenderism to taxes, "personal freedom" and insults. I am reasonably sure that we are not on the same "side". I don't support mainstreaming transgenderism into conservatism. No conservative should no matter how much campaign money you funnel to them

How is not accepting transgenderism as conservative growing the government or being a purist? Aren't we just as "purist" about taxes and "personal freedoms?"

Don't you want protections for these people that would grow the government and reduce people's liberty to oppose it?

This letter to Hyatt Hotels is our declaration that we will not let them cancel us with these lies. @Hyatt #AmericaUnCanceled #CPAC2021

UNION

March 1, 2021

Mr. Thomas J. Pritzker
Executive Chairman
Hyatt Hotels
71 South Wacker Drive
Chicago, Illinois 60606

Dear Mr. Pritzker:

Contrary to Hyatt's own mission statement of inclusivity, your company just attacked its own customer by caving into the pressures of the politically motivated social media agitators who seek to destroy CPAC, our attendees and speakers from across the country, and the millions of Americans who support our work. Hyatt made a decision to issue additional statements late last night after the conference ended that disparaged and defamed us. These statements appear to validate demonstrably false and malicious claims.

When we learned of the orchestrated assault on us, we immediately contacted your senior management to set the record straight. Together, we quickly responded to these slanderous accusations. Your hotel's senior management was on notice and acknowledged that these claims were false and agreed to share any statement before its release. We agreed that coordination was critical so that the general public would know the truth and that you would treat your customer with honesty. Thus, we were shocked that the Hyatt waited until after the conference concluded to issue additional statements - ones that are irresponsible, untrue, and contribute to a climate of division and hatred.

For months we have collaborated with your team on logistics, including sharing, reviewing, and approving the stage design that was created by one of our subcontractors. The fact that no one on the Hyatt staff ever raised concerns during the process shows the ridiculous nature of your statements. Moreover, your statements falsely conceal your oversight role. In fact, the Hyatt Hotel, with our organization and subcontractors, approved and worked collaboratively to build this stage. Only after a coordinated far-left assault to destroy our conference arose did you succumb to lies and compound them with your own.

During this difficult time for our nation, we believe in Americans getting back to work and helping companies like yours to flourish. Indeed, you recruited us. We sought to work with you in good faith to help Hyatt workers and the Florida economy. In fact, countless employees expressed their immense gratitude for bringing CPAC to the Hyatt in Orlando, many stating that this very conference was the sole reason they had a job.

Our Jewish Board Members, staff, speakers, and attendees are appalled by the Hyatt leadership for not standing with us as we fight against antisemitism (a term that Hyatt fails to use in its statements). We would have hoped that our 10th Annual Shabbat Dinner, daily Jewish prayer services, and speeches on the main stage from Jewish leaders, such as Ambassador David Friedman, Former Ohio Treasurer Josh Mandel, and Rabbi Yitz Tessler would be enough to put an end to these outrageous falsehoods.

The theme of CPAC 2021 was "America UnCanceled." It is tragic and reckless that Hyatt would choose to abandon its Mbrojtësit e Bashkuar dhetat ploi shateve të qara Perëndimore. Sado të tmerrshme që janë, shumat terroriste të organizuara nga fraksione të ndryshme të rezistencës së armatosur palestineze, ato nuk mund të krahasohen me fushatat ushtarake të shfarosjes dhe shpërnguljes të palestinezëve të organizuara nga ushtria dhe policia e Izraelit. Për ta kuptuar këtë mjafton të ndjekësh lajmet dhe të numërosh kilometra e pafundme që ky pushtim prodhon çdo javë. Dihet sqaruar se në njërin anë ndodhet pushtuesi që ka në dispozicion një p.sh. forcave ushtarake më të fuqishme në botë, e në anën tjetër ndodhet populli i pushtuar. Palestinasit cil është përfaqësuar të rezistojë këty pushtim, me të gjitha metodat e mundshme, në demonstrata, bojkote dhe rezistencë të armatosur.

Albin Kurti was against Bill Clinton in Rambouillet.

Kurti was against George Bush in Vienna.

Kurti was against Barack Obama & Joe Biden on Demarcation.

Kurti was against Donald Trump for Economic Normalization.

He will be against Joe Biden again.

He's reliably anti-America.

"Japan did much better than America against COVID-19 because they masked up more!"

Well, that's just one data point of many. Here's another factor: obesity is the second most predictive COVID comorbidity after 65+ age-

And the US has around 8-10x Japan's obesity rate.

Older Americans are much more likely to be overweight than older Japanese persons (Table 2). We found that 10.5% of the men and 14.5% of the women in the US are obese; in contrast, obesity is almost nonexistent among older persons in Japan: only 0.9% of Japanese men and 2.3% of Japanese women are obese.

The New York Times is lying.

POLITICS A vexing question for Democrats, what drives Latino men to Republicans?

Like other men interviewed, Mr. Cortez, a registered independent, said he voted for Mr. Trump in large part because he believed he had done better financially under his administration and worried that a government run by President Biden would raise taxes and support policies that would favor the elite.

Some of the frustrations voiced by Hispanic Republican men are stoked by misinformation, including conspiracy theories claiming that the "deep state" took over during the Trump administration and a belief that Black Lives Matter protests caused widespread violence.

Biden State Department backtracks on Uyghurs genocide.

Jerry Dunleavy ✓ @jerryDunleavy

NEW: The State Dept's spox said today that the Biden Admin believes that the Chinese government "was" committing genocide against the Uyghurs, but repeatedly declined to say whether the U.S. believes that the CCP's Uyghur genocide is ongoing.

Friendly reminder

If you are planning any trips for Spring Break, please keep that off of Social Media. It is hard to argue that it is unsafe for in-person instruction, if parents and the public see vacation photos and international travel.

Okay, back to the regularly scheduled programming. Here's a piece from @poitico that just enormously missed the mark. Again, pure wishcasting.

At right was the actual review of the ads after the fact

What the Lincoln Project Ad Makers Got About Voters (and What Dems Don't)

Published December 30, 2020

Study finds that viral ads from The Lincoln Project failed to sway swing voters during election: report

President Trump's political opponents were told that they were not as effective as they thought.

@NBCNews more or less ran press releases from the org in lieu of covering them.

Really makes you wonder why no one was poking around through the group's relatively well-known misdeeds.

With clever ads and searing social media attacks, the Lincoln Project has drawn notice. But what that means for November's election is up in the air.

Even the overseas media got involved. Here's @guardian

Again. No evidence to suggest they did anything* against Trump or down the ballot.

Let's be clear....there isn't a big enough market for all the blogs on the Left.

The lesson may be to try to make a go doing real journalism.

Sam Stein @samstein

Huffpost, where I grew up professionally and to which I will forever have a deep emotional connection, is laying off 47 journalists today. I'm devastated for these folks.

With due respect Lahav, the Germans did not appreciate Trump's ambassador's effort to use his position to empower European and German far right, or as one German parliamentarian put it: act as "biased propaganda machine" who brought about a "nadir in German-American relations."

I dunno, guys, if our society's victims now include NYT reporters who get their names mentioned on Tucker Carlson and celebrated princesses who used to be TV actresses now living on $14.5M properties while hanging with Oprah, I feel like we've watered down victimhood a bit.

It's the height of wokeness wrapped in elitism.

The fragility of today's reporters stands in stark contrast to real journalists of the past.

Lorenz has covered Internet culture and the creator economy for more than a decade, treating the social media ecosystem of content as a business and tech story.

Lorenz wrote features about the GameStop short squeeze and Black Influencers in Atlanta facing systemic racism, and investigated Shoplly sites selling fake COVID cures. She's also unearthed new trends like TikTok mansions going public on the stock market, written about the millions of dollars Snapchat is paying its users to post content, and unionization efforts for Instagram memers.

Good lord. Conservatives go through it everyday when they read the DC media. You can't be this naive?!

It's so bizarre that you criticize people for a living and then say criticism is mean.

If you dish it out but can't take it yourself then learn to code.

Wesley ✓ @WesleyLowery

For those who haven't gone through it, it is extremely destabilizing to have major conservative media attack you by name — you get a flood of deranged threats. What @TaylorLorenz is dealing with is not only unacceptable, it's dangerous. Fox News should be ashamed, were it capable.

For once I agree with Newsom. The state and counties have killed many small businesses that will not come back. Thousands have left California for good. Many large companies have moved to other states. The new normal is a less robust economy, more handouts, more taxes

I liked normal when it was cool to make fun of people, and to have them make fun of you back. And when it was okay to succeed because you're great or fail because you suck.

Good lord. Conservatives go through it everyday when they read the DC media. You can't be this naive?!

It's so bizarre that you criticize people for a living and then say criticism is mean.

If you dish it out but can't take it yourself then learn to code.

Wesley @WesleyLowery · 18h

For those who haven't gone through it, it is extremely destabilizing to have major conservative media attack you by name - you get a flood of deranged threats. What @TaylorLorenz is dealing with is not only unacceptable, it's dangerous. Fox News should be ashamed, were it capable.

Sorry, but I forgot nothing at all. I was not the one who invited Zarif to meet in DC. It was President Trump himself if I remember correctly. And whether one likes it or not, it was the US government that played a leading role in negotiating the JCPOA with Zarif. Facts are facts.

Omg... possibly the worst correction I've ever seen and from the publication that says "Democracy Dies in Darkness"

This is why trust in the media is rock bottom.

By Amy Gardner

Correction. Two months after publication of this story the Georgia secretary of state released an audio recording of President Donald Trump's December phone call with the state's top elections investigator. The recording revealed that The Post misquoted Trump's comments on the call, based on information provided by a source. Trump did not tell the investigator to "find the fraud" or say she would be "a national hero" if she did so. Instead, Trump urged the investigator to scrutinize ballots in Fulton County, Ga., asserting she would find "dishonesty" there. He also told her that she had "the most important job in the country right now." A story about the recording can be found here. The headline and text of this story have been corrected to remove quotes misattributed to Trump.

The worst Trump-era media humiliation was when CNN breathlessly claimed Trump, Jr. got advanced access to the WikiLeaks archive -- all because their "sources" misread an email date.

How did MSNBC & CBS purport to "independently confirm" the same falsehood? It's a key tactic.

45 CONGRESS SUPREME COURT 2018 ELECTION RESULTS

Washington (CNN) - Correction. This story has been corrected to say the date of the email was September 14, 2016, not September 4, 2016. The story also changed the headline and removed a tweet from Donald Trump Jr., who posted a message about WikiLeaks on September 4, 2016.

Candidate Donald Trump, his son Donald Trump Jr. and others in the Trump Organization received an email September 2016 offering a decryption key and website address for hacked Wikileaks documents, according to an email provided to CNN by a source with access to the documents.

The September 14 email was sent to the Trump Organization's presidential campaign.

CNN initially reported the email was sent and intercepted on September 4, 2016, based on accounts from two sources who had seen the email. The new details appear to show the sender was relying on publicly available information. The new information indicates that the information is less significant than CNN initially reported.

The report makes clear that once again the Russians pushed misinformation in the 2020 election. Meanwhile, the report plays down China's leverage campaign by using a different standard - they didn't "change the outcome" of the election.

Awful and despicable spin, Sam. You are such a Democrat activist.

We give 1 million people US citizenship a year. We are the most generous nation with immigration. Republicans celebrate immigrants.

But there's a long line to get in.

Stop promoting line jumpers!

We have an ongoing and serious problem in California.

And @GavinNewsom doesn't care. People are pissed off! Because their kids are suffering.

This post is from a very frustrated mom who simply wants her daughter to play in beach volleyball tournaments.

BECAUSE OF THIS RULE FROM STATE GUIDELINES FOR YOUTH Sports, Beach Volleyball tournaments are not allowed in California, even though we have about 840 miles of beaches to allow for social distancing.

Anyone has any insight as to when/if this rule will change given the falling rate of cases?

How are California girls supposed to play beach volleyball, if only 2 teams are allowed? 1 year of no competition is enough, we are the only state not allowing this. This is arbitrary.

I suspect part of the reason trans issues have taken up such space in the Discourse is that LBGTQ orgs pivoted to trans issues after the legalization of gay marriage in 2015, and the media/culture followed suit. Definitely seems to be the case..

Thank you for reaching out to me on this important and urgent matter. I appreciate the acknowledgment of the unprecedented challenges that the University of California (UC) have faced over the past year.

The COVID-19 pandemic has impacted UC students with a variety of obstacles, including how students can effectively address their mental health concerns. As UC officials have taken a comprehensive and intentional approach to addressing student mental health and well-being during the pandemic, ensuring that systems have access to a wide range of holistic health and well-being resources regardless of the obstacles and challenges they might be experiencing. Some examples of these holistic services and supports include virtual health promotion programs geared to support social connection and mental well-being, self-guided meditation courses, access to peer support and healthy behaviors, and virtual recreation programs including yoga, light intensity workouts, and mindfulness programs. Many of our campuses have partnered with their local health centers to ensure students who are in quarantine/isolation have access to support resources in addition to virtual and in-person clinical care for non-COVID health challenges through virtual telehealth appointments and in-person equity in access and reduced wait times.

Our Office is committed to exploring a variety of options to address the health and well-being of our

They spent the last 4 years telling Americans (& the world) that we were racist, sexist homophobes. Just to win an election.
Then in Alaska, their politics was used against them by one of the world's worst human rights violators. A total embarrassment - on US soil.

During Friday's tour of the Rio Grande with 18 of my Republican Senate colleagues, we saw a dead body floating in the river. That was just one of many tragic things we witnessed at the border near McAllen, and a reminder of the human toll of this unnecessary crisis.

County's adjusted case rate dropped from 37 new cases per 100,000 people to 31 new cases per 100,000 people. The test positivity rate dropped from 1.8% to 1.5%.

Will Joe Biden ever apologize for spreading doubt about Operation Warp Speed during the campaign?

He openly questioned whether a vaccine developed by the initiative would be “real” and whether there would be a “consensus” that “this is a safe vaccine.”

America, we need to have a hard talk about the Democratic Party. It is now an authoritarian party that supports state surveillance, criminalizing opposition, using schools to teach propaganda & dividing the country from within. It is an imminent danger to our rights & freedoms.

Lara Trump reports that Facebook is banning her from posting video of the former president of the free United States and threatening her with removal as well. Big Tech oligarchs exercising raw power to silence their political opponents is utterly terrifying to observe.

Do the folks railing against the so-called Covid passport also want to end requirements that children be vaccinated to attend public schools? Some GOP lawmakers have dabbled there. But it remains a fringe position. But is this not the same idea/concept?

The CDC's role is to give extremely cautious health warnings. They have some very restrictive (too restrictive in my opinion) suggestions.

But they are now saying this about mask wearing for vaccinated people.
cdc.gov/coronavirus/20 ...

Do I need to wear a mask and avoid close contact with others if I have gotten 2 doses of the vaccine?

It depends. For now, fully vaccinated people can gather indoors without physical distancing or wearing masks

It's Friday and hope is lost....

Death seems to have won,
Judas has betrayed Him,
His best friend denied Him,
His mother is distraught,
The doubters are laughing,
Jesus is buried,
And the tomb is sealed tight.

It seems over...

But Sunday is coming!

It's Friday and hope is lost....

Death seems to have won,
Judas has betrayed Him,
His best friend denied Him,
His mother is distraught,
The doubters are laughing,
Jesus is buried,
And the tomb is sealed tight.

It seems over...

But Sunday is coming!

If you want trustworthy, free, and fair elections, the norm should be 1-day, in-person, private-voting-booth, ID required, with VERY few exceptions. What we had in 2020 was a months-long free-for-all, and Democrats want to keep it that way for political reasons that are unseemly.

Why is it called the Masters? When the tournament began it was called the Augusta National Invitation Tournament.

Roberts suggested it be called the Masters, a reference to the "masters of golf" who played in it, but Jones thought the name immodest. Roberts finally got his way in 1939. Nov 2, 2020

Great question, no I did not! Did you get paid by a serial sexual assaulter and bigot's failed reelection campaign? Yes! Did you get paid to travel to Nevada as part of that losers attempt to steal the election and stay in power? Yes! This is fun let's keep playing. <https://twitter.com/RichardGrenell/status/1369326984610811904>

No. The resurrection of Christ is the entire meaning of Christianity - without it there is death and the grave for Christ.

Reverend Raphael Warnock ✓ @ReverendWarnock

The meaning of Easter is more transcendent than the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Whether you are Christian or not, through a commitment to helping others we are able to save ourselves.

Pretending that the Biden laptop story was about sex or drugs is utterly deceitful. A person's addiction struggles & consensual adult sex is not news.
The story was (and is) about financial corruption. And there's zero doubt the docs were authentic.

Megyn Kelly @megynkelly

This has every single classic indicator of deception Twitter & Facebook should be utterly embarrassed to have run cover for this guy #HunterBiden

At this point, the bigger part of the Hunter Biden story -- bigger than what the docs revealed about Bidens' influence-peddling in Ukraine & China -
- is how Silicon Valley giants censored the story. Who can justify that election interference & censorship?

This has to do with so much more than voter ID and handing out water to people in line. You just want the focus to stay away from the other problematic forms of suppression found in these new voter laws.

Oh boy. Democrat mayor of Palm Beach County says 60 Minutes' "reporting was not just based on bad information -- it was intentionally false." Says he offered to refute 60 Minutes' half-cooked conspiracy theory based on personal knowledge and "60 Minutes declined."

Mayor Dave Kerner on Sunday Night's 60 Minutes: "The reporting was not just based on bad information -- it was intentionally false. I know this because I was there. I was supporting the residents of Palm Beach County during this pandemic for over a year. Our coordination with Palm Beach County is making it worse. They are not doing enough. 60 Minutes should be ashamed of how our county and state and the results speak for themselves."

Biden team not only reverses decision to bring some US troops home from Germany but adds US troops in Germany

Meanwhile, Germany continues to snub NATO spending commitment and continues with Russian gas pipeline Nord Stream 2.

Germany First.
US taxpayers Last.

Jennifer Jacobs @jenniferjjacobs

NEW: 500 additional US troops will be stationed in Germany, marking a reversal of Trump's draw down. Asked if it's a signal to Russia for buildup of forces at Ukrainian border, @SecDef said it's a message "that we support NATO in the fullest extent," @androgers reports.

Reporters aren't saying if the @SecDef even mentioned NATO defense spending commitments with @akk.

Germany is the largest economy in Europe, has a surplus, and still doesn't meet its NATO obligations.

Americans should be furious about being taken advantage of....

The Biden team just wants to be liked by Europeans.

And the Europeans are clear - they just want diplomats they can ignore.

The Grenell Show is such a wonderful foil. Still, it'll be great to get back to having a career diplomat in place who will raise the same issues at a volume we can safely ignore. Better for everybody's blood pressure.

I would encourage CNN to look deep into the diversity of Embassy Berlin leadership during the Trump Administration.

I'm betting they won't because it's an incredible story.

How's almost 100% diverse for you, @NicoleCNN?

Reuters hides the truth.

While there are 34,500 permanent US troops in Germany - there are actually more than 50,000 total US troops at any given time because of rotation and overlap.

I made this clear to Reuters and the media every day.

Why didn't @davidspunt say that the DOJ official who resigned over launch of voter fraud investigation was the same official accused of targeting conservatives with Lois Lerner at the IRS during Obama Administration?!

Seems relevant.

Pilger is responsible for prosecuting illegal campaign finance coordination efforts. In early 2015, the DOJ announced it planned to "aggressively pursue coordination offenses at every appropriate opportunity," in anticipation of the 2016 elections. Therefore, these cases, if they materialize, will fall under Pilger's jurisdiction.

Profession Attorney

In February 2015, Tyler Harber, a Republican campaign manager and political consultant, pleaded guilty "to one count of coordinated federal election contributions and one count of making false statements to the FBI." This case, which was prosecuted by Pilger and Chief Mark D. Lytle of the Financial Crimes and Public Corruption Unit of the Eastern District of Virginia, was the first criminal prosecution for campaign finance coordination between political committees in the United States.¹⁴

IRS targeting involvement

The House Oversight Committee learned about a database Lois Lerner then head of the tax-exempt organizations division of the Internal Revenue Service (IRS), shared with the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) after interviewing Pilger and reviewing emails between him and Lerner. The discovery of this database eventually launched a Congressional investigation into whether the IRS was improperly targeting conservative organizations applying for a tax-exempt status.

Pilger and Lerner discussed potentially prosecuting tax-exempt organizations, specifically 501(c)(3) groups involved in political activity. Weeks before the 2010 midterm elections, emails between the two explicitly mentioned the expansive database. Lerner asked Pilger what format for the database would be preferable to the FBI. Pilger, in turn, relayed this inquiry to the FBI and responded to Lerner: "Thanks Lois - FBI says Raw format is best because they can put it into their systems like excel."¹⁵

In 2013, Pilger and Lerner were again colluding about targeting tax-exempt groups. In an email from Lerner to Nikole Flax, former chief of staff to IRS commissioner Steven Miller, Lerner wrote:¹⁶

I got a call today from Richard Pilger Director Elections Crimes Branch at DOJ.

They knew exactly what they were doing. It's not journalism.

Remember this as you watch cable stars claim to be "journalists" yet again: treat a U.S. intelligence agency assertion, completely unaccompanied by evidence, as Truth.

This, apparently, is what they mean by "Real Reporting™": blind faith in CIA pronouncements.

19 155 695

Glenn Greenwald @ggreenwald · 1 t

There's a new government report out today that makes a claim about Russiagate: the eternal crack pipe of the corporate media. The claim has no evidence, just a CIA/DHS assertion.

Just watch how many media figures on Twitter are now treating it as Gospel, not to be questioned.

15 76 375

Glenn Greenwald @ggreenwald · 1 t

Remember: this discredited RUSSIA BOUNTY story wasn't just treated as Gospel by the CNN/NBC/NYT axis.

It was a main argument used in July by pro-war House Dems & the r key ally Liz Cheney, to try to block Trump's withdrawal plan from Afghanistan.

12 144 499

Glenn Greenwald @ggreenwald · 1 t

Debunking bullshit propaganda reports from the corporate press is one form of Real Reporting™ - a very important form of it - because media propaganda deceives and misleads people, while the debunking illuminates and informs. the core purpose of Journalism.

24 84 454

Glenn Greenwald @ggreenwald · 49 min

It's good that the Daily Beast noted the US intelligence assessment of "low to moderate confidence" in the Russia bounty story. But they were also one of the many, many outlets uncritically hyping and pushing it.

Aaron Maté @aaronjmate

New: Russiagate disinformation outlet @thedailybeast suffers another blockbuster humiliation

6 51 237

Glenn Greenwald @ggreenwald · 48 min

Look for journalists today hyping the new CIA claims about Russiagate as Proven Fact - they're all over the place already - and ask them how they know it's true. Do they need evidence or do they just blindly believe the CIA? It will tell you a lot about how the press functions.

14 66 251

Glenn Greenwald @ggreenwald · 35 min

What's most amazing about this is that this "walking back" by US intelligence agencies is happening on the same day they just published a new evidence-free Russiagate claim, and it doesn't cause media stars to be even a tiny bit skeptical of it.

Tommy Vietor @TVietor08

US intelligence seems to be walking back the claim that Russia paid the Taliban bounties to attack US troops. If true, that's a huge fuck-up. But counter to this Daily Beast story, this wasn't just some resistance thing.

4 63 294

Glenn Greenwald @ggreenwald · 34 min

If you don't know that US intelligence agencies exist to spread disinformation and lie, then you know literally nothing about how the US Government functions.

And if you claim to be a "journalist" but mindlessly treat all US Govt claims as true with no evidence, you're pitiful.

Yesterday a senior administration official said Intel community assesses, "with low to moderate confidence," that Russia offered bounties to Taliban to kill US/coalition forces in Afghanistan (pic). Today former acting DNI @RichardGrenell wants apologies. twitter.com/RichardGrenell.

Finally, let me offer an update on reports of bounties on U.S. soldiers in Afghanistan. The United States intelligence community assesses, with low to moderate confidence, that Russian intelligence officers sought to encourage Taliban attacks against U.S. and coalition personnel in Afghanistan in 2019 and perhaps earlier, including through financial incentives and compensation. U.S. intelligence community agencies have low to moderate confidence in this judgment, in part because it relies on detainee reporting and due to the challenging operating environment in Afghanistan.

Our conclusion is based on information and evidence of connections between criminal agents in Afghanistan and elements of the Russian government. This information puts a burden on the Russian government to explain its actions and take steps to address this disturbing pattern of behavior.

I regret to inform you that #BlueAnon is still in the throes of its wild Russia collusion CONSPIRACY theory. Co-authored, incidentally, by old-timey Russia hoax dudes, including one of the guys who just yesterday was humiliated by implosion of the fake Russia bounty story.

David Axelrod @daxaxelrod

The chair of a campaign passes that campaign's polling on to Russian intelligence, which is working to influence the outcome of the election.

Seems like the very definition of collusion, doesn't it?

Why is Harris welcoming the Prime Minister of Japan to the White House instead of Biden?

If Vice President Pence welcomed and then showed the head of a major U.S. ally and global power around the White House and not President Trump, CNN and MSNBC would have melted down and insisted something was wrong with him.

But with Harris doing it for Joe, it's NBD for journos.

DEMOCRATS PRESSURE FCC TO DENY SALE OF SPANISH-LANGUAGE RADIO STATION IN FLORIDA BASED ON POLITICAL VIEWPOINTS

"To win in 2022 this must stop!" Florida Democrat Says of Campaign

WASHINGTON, April 4, 2022 — Congressional Democrats recently called on the FCC to reject the sale of a Spanish-language radio station in South Florida based purely on politics. According to the Democratic Representatives, the FCC must block this change in ownership to prevent what they view as a progressive broadcast station from beginning to air conservative viewpoints to Miami's Hispanic community.

As Newsweek reported, "Members of the Congressional Hispanic Caucus (CHC) mobilized to pressure the Federal Communications Commission to reject the sale of the well-known Miami radio station, WAMI 96.3 AM." Separately, The Hill wrote that Florida Democrats are sounding the alarm and reported that the former Obama Administration officials called the sale of the station "a problem" for the party. Former Representative Debbie Mucarsel-Power added that "To win in 2022 this must stop" in reference to the Newsweek report.

FCC Commissioner Brendan Carr issued the following statement in response:

"This attempt by Democrats in Congress to pressure the FCC into blocking the sale of a Spanish-language radio station based on the political viewpoints that it would broadcast to South Florida's Hispanic community crosses a line drawn by the First Amendment. The FCC has no business doing the Democrats' bidding or using our regulatory process to censor political opinions that Democrats do not like. What's worse, the Democrats appear to be treating the FCC as merely an arm of the DNC, expressly pressuring the agency to take action that they believe will increase their electoral odds in

Things that have recently been described as “crises” in Politico: Empty retail space. Threats to the Supreme Court’s legitimacy. Widespread wage cuts. The condition of rural America. A cyberhack of the federal government. The decline in the size and morale of the Capitol Police. Climate change. The drug epidemic. The position of the Spanish monarchy. The coup in Myanmar. The state of child care.

A major problem facing US officials in returning to normal is many people, even after they are fully vaccinated, continue to fear they'll get & suffer from COVID, perhaps even die from it. So much media messaging is encouraging this anti-scientific fear:

What on earth is this, @JohnKerry?

government actions — sometimes to his embarrassment.

On the night that Iran decided to retaliate against the United States for the killing of General Suleimani, two Quds Force commanders went to see the Iraqi prime minister, Adel Abdul Mahdi, to inform him that in about 45 minutes Iran would be firing missiles at a military base where U.S. troops were stationed, Mr. Zarif said. The Americans knew about the strike before he did.

Former Secretary of State John Kerry informed him that Israel had attacked Iranian interests in Syria at least 200 times, to his astonishment, Mr. Zarif said.

Why is Joe Biden not walking from Marine
One to the White House?

stepped off the helicopter two minutes later and, with a wave to the assembled pool, moved to the waiting SUV for the short ride up to the White House."

Politicized prosecutions have imploded @doj's credibility. Career officials should speak up.

And why is @KamalaHarris allowing this to happen? She was outraged when Trump shut down travel from China last year.

From the Press Secretary:

The restriction will affect all non-US citizens, including in the United States, starting on Tuesday.

It's shameful that @SpectrumNews allows this Propaganda.

It's unacceptable that @SpectrumNews allows @alexcoheninla to push pro-Democrat partisan stories every day. This isn't journalism. It's propaganda.

Today she's allowing Katie Hill to spin a tale without any push back.

That's because Israel is not engaged in practices that you @KenRoth maliciously claim that we are. But in making these false accusations, you are only hardening the parties positions & providing cover to Palestinian terror. So yes, @hrw is impeding peace <https://twitter.com/kenroth/status/1389888100487270400...>

So somehow it isn't the Israeli government's practice of apartheid that is an impediment to peace but @HRW's reporting on it. Huh? <https://www.newsweek.com/injecting-apartheid-israeli-palestinian-conflict-will-make-it-worse-opinion-1588559>

Please remember: inspectors are scientists not military trained police - they aren't carrying guns and can only inspect what they are given access to....

The reports are limited to what they get to see.

laurence norman @laurnorman

No clear period for how long this will remain true. But the sense is quite some time. We'll know more in late May when next quarterly report is circulated — and right when European diplomats hope to wrap up #IranTalks 2/2

Hard to believe that the state run media in DC hasn't noticed.

They've clearly been instructed to NOT cover it.

Democrats ran 11 points behind where they did in 2020, and now our Party is on the road to winning back our majorities in 2022!

I'm suggesting we don't know what we don't know.

I hope you aren't suggesting that Iran's information can be trusted?!

Because I've got an Israeli locker to show you.

laurence norman @laurnorman

Replying to @RichardGrenell

There's some truth in that. See IAEA hesitancy over some non-nuclear sites, including military. But I hope you're not suggesting Iran is producing enriched uranium that is not being monitored, counted by agency. Because there's not a single source in this field suggesting that.

I've sat inside the UN Security Council closed door meetings too many times hearing IAEA inspectors respond to questions with "we didn't see that but didn't get full access either".

They only inspect what is open to them

These propagandists at ABC fail to say that these people broke the law, jumped the line and then gave up their children so the children could live in America as minors without waiting in line. The children could have stayed with their parents.

They are trying to tell us California voters love Newsom.

And, of course, the progressive left @latimes thinks it's true. #fakenews

RE: Berkeley/@latimes poll

Media is focused on Jenner's anemic support w/ R's (YIKES!) + the recall numbers, but are glossing over the most significant result: enthusiasm.

R's are fired up about the recall, Dems aren't. Makes it tough (impossible?) to predict the electorate.

Huge news. The CDC says we're allowed to participate in outdoor AND indoor activities without a mask if we're fully vaccinated. I am so grateful to be given permission to do the thing that I've been doing all along! Thank you, government!

My mom, a former Cheney fan, thought she was rude, repetitive, and obsessive tonight. She didn't appreciate her repeated lying about Trump losing voters from 2016 to 2020 when he gained 11+ million new voters for GOP. And then she reminded me I was conceived in Wyoming. TMI mom!

I'm being deceptive?! I'm for transparency. You DC types hide the details from the American people and then go on TV and say something they can't check. It's the DC way. And it usually works - until Americans see the details (i.e. the hidden transcripts).

Daniel Goldman @danielsgoldman

Sad to see that @richardgrenell has assumed the same kind of deceptive and deficient logic that @RepRatcliffe used during impeachment. If any individual fact witness does not or cannot assert a legal conclusion, that does not mean that that legal conclusion cannot be found. twitter.com/RichardGreene...

I read the transcripts. There were lots of questions from Democrats. Lots. You just didn't find any collusion when they were under oath - so the transcripts were the only thing you didn't leak to the DC media.

Weaponize? History lesson: Democrats were in the minority for the Russia Investigation — it was a GOP-led investigation that allowed witnesses to not answer questions. And the Mueller Investigation came from @realDonaldTrump's appointees. So, show us the Flynn tapes or buzz off twitter.com/RichardGrenell...
